3. Review & Approval of Minutes from the previous meeting

4. The upcoming release of the MO-AG Vehicle Stop Report and the disparity rates

5. Review The 5 Questions To Ensure Meaningful Engagement (NYC School of Law Policing Project). Responses from our Retreat--What can we do with this information? How can we make it take action?

What are the goals of engagement?

- Authenticity
- Builds relationships
- Builds trust with all members of the community
- When the police show up, is there relief or fear?

With whom do we want to engage?

- Neighborhoods, Organizations, Schools
- Start with the Black and Brown community (where the relationship is most fractured)
- Where are most of the calls?

What steps are being taken to educate the audience so it can engage in a meaningful way?

- Surveys
- Friday Pages
- Webster-Kirkwood Times
- Create a Mission/Vision/Values for the board

What steps are being taken so those who choose to engage are actually being heard?

- Survey to more diverse groups
- Put the survey in the Friday Pages

What will be done to respond to input, in order to show respect for those who participated?

- Make the discussion of survey responses (comments) a regular part of the PCEB monthly meeting agenda.

- Review and discuss Goal Setting from the Retreat. How can we prioritize and start to decide what we can do Now/This Month/in Two Months?

Short Term Goals

- Use feedback/data in meeting discussions
- Recreate the Wesley Bell role-play with students
- Recreate the Wesley Bell case reviews (what took place, how, why)
- Sponsor and event in the park with the community and police: fun Field Day events/tug o war/etc. At Ivory Crockett Park Fall 2021
- Entertain board collaboration with other boards (ex: Parks and Rec)

Long Term Goals

- Plan a Fall Event and put on calendar
- Develop Mission/Vision/Values
- “Officer Rogers in the Neighborhood” spreading good vibes
- Mayor Welch and Cindy chat about how we can spread the survey to more people.
- Plan a retreat once a year (Spring?)
